

Judas, one of the disciples, was not loyal. He helped nasty people who wanted Jesus dead. Soldiers came for Jesus and put him on a cross. It was horrible, but Jesus chose to stay there. He died, but always trusted that God would take care of him.