

“Do not eat fruit from that tree,” said God, pointing. But one day, a crafty snake tricked Eve into eating a fruit, which she shared with Adam. Now God’s friendship with people was damaged. He sent them out of the Garden.

