

God filled his world
with all kinds of creatures —
all chasing and racing,
grunting and growling,
and roaring and howling.

How many animals can you name?