

The illustration depicts Noah's Ark as a large wooden building with a ramp. An elephant is on the ramp, and a pink bird is in flight. The sky is dark and gloomy with several birds flying. In the foreground, a variety of animals are gathered, including giraffes, deer, sheep, foxes, penguins, tigers, bears, crocodiles, and mice. The scene is set against a backdrop of tall, thin green trees.

The sky grew dark and gloomy.

So, Noah marched the animals two by two into the ark, from gangly giraffes and tough tigers to roly-poly penguins and teeny-weeny spiders.
