

Moses led the Hebrews out of Egypt.
But when they had gone, the king changed his mind.
He sent soldiers after them to bring them back.

The Hebrews were trapped. Before them lay the Red Sea, and behind them thundered six hundred chasing chariots.