

Home to roost

Owls do not build nests in tree canopies like other birds, but roost inside the trunk. Living in a forest with other animals around means they can find lots of prey to eat.

Bark gallery

Bark beetles gnaw tunnels, called galleries, below the surface of the trunk. It is a safe place to lay eggs, but larvae can destroy a tree by eating its wood.