

impossible

ADJECTIVE

If something is impossible, you cannot do it. It is impossible for people to fly like birds.

☛ Opposite: possible

improve

VERB improves, improving, improved

If something improves, it gets better. My spelling is improving.

improvement (NOUN)

An improvement is a change that makes something better.

include

VERB includes, including, included

If you include something, you have it or put it with other things. I'm going to include some pictures with my story.

inconvenient

ADJECTIVE

If something is inconvenient, you find it difficult or annoying. It's inconvenient having the sports field so far away from the school.

☛ Opposite: convenient incorrect

ADJECTIVE

Something that is incorrect is wrong. I'm sorry, you are incorrect!

☛ Opposite: correct

increase

VERB increases, increasing, increased

When a number or an amount increases, it gets bigger. My allowance increases every year.

☛ Opposite: decrease

incredible

ADJECTIVE

If something is incredible, it is so strange that you find it difficult to believe.

independent

ADJECTIVE

Someone who is independent can do things for themselves and decide things for themselves.

index

NOUN indexes

An index is a list of all the things that are included in a book, with numbers for the pages where you can find each thing.

individual

NOUN individuals

1 An individual is a person.

ADJECTIVE

2 Something that is individual is for just one person. There will be individual prizes and team prizes.

indoors

ADVERB

Indoors means inside a building. Let's go indoors now.

☛ Opposite: outdoors

industry

NOUN industries

An industry is a business that makes things or sells things. A lot of people work in the food industry.

infant

NOUN infants

An infant is a very young child.

infection

NOUN infections

If you get an infection, a germ gets into your body and makes you ill.

infinity

NOUN

Infinity is a time, number, or place that never ends. Looking at the night sky is like looking into infinity.

inflate

VERB inflates, inflating, inflated

When you inflate something, you blow or pump air into it to make it bigger.

☛ Opposite: deflate influence

VERB influences, influencing, influenced

If you influence someone, you change the way they think or behave.

