

a loose

ADJECTIVE looser, loosest

1 If something is loose, it is not held firmly in place.2 Loose clothes are baggy.d loosen (VERB)

If you loosen something, you make it less tight.

f lose

VERB loses, losing, lost

1 When you lose something, you cannot find it. *I've lost my shoe.2 If you lose a game or battle, you are defeated.j lost

ADJECTIVE

If something is lost, you cannot find it and don't know where it is.

LI lot

NOUN lots

If you have a lot of things, you have a large number or a large amount.

p lottery

NOUN lotteries

A lottery is a game in which people win a prize if they choose the right numbers. *What would you do if you won the lottery?t loud

ADJECTIVE louder, loudest

Something that is loud makes a lot of noise.

v loudly (ADVERB)

If you speak loudly, you speak in a loud voice.

x lounge

VERB lounged, lounging

To relax or be lazy. *She lounged on the sofa after playing soccer all afternoon.love

VERB loves, loving, loved

1 If you love someone, you like them a lot.2 If you love something, you like it or enjoy it a lot. *I love strawberry ice cream!lovely

ADJECTIVE lovelier, loveliest

Something that is lovely is very nice.

low

ADJECTIVE lower, lowest

Something that is low is near the ground.

lower (VERB)When you lower something, you move it nearer to the ground. *The crane lowered the roof into position.lower case

ADJECTIVE

Lower case letters are small letters, not capital letters.

loyal

ADJECTIVE

If you are loyal to someone, you keep supporting them.

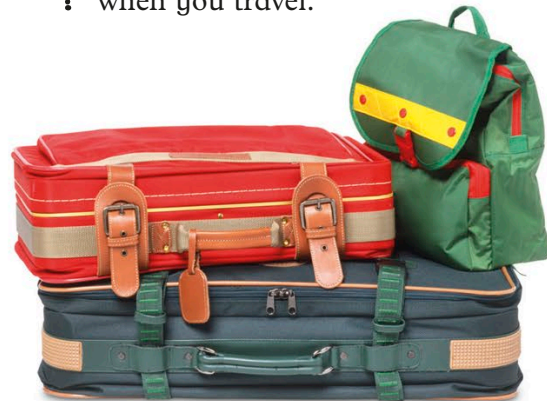

luck

NOUN

Luck is something that happens by chance. *It was bad luck that it started to rain.luckily (ADVERB)If something happens luckily, something good happens by chance. *I lost my phone, but luckily I found it again.lucky (ADJECTIVE)If you are lucky, something good happens to you by chance. *I think we were lucky to win that game!luggage

NOUN

Your luggage is the cases and bags that you take with you when you travel.

luggage*lump

NOUN lumps

A lump of something is a piece of it. *He molded the lump of clay into a teapot.lunar

ADJECTIVE

Lunar means to do with the moon. *You can see some lunar rocks in the museum.lunch

NOUN lunches

Lunch is a meal that you eat in the middle of the day.

lung

NOUN lungs

Your lungs are the organs inside your body that you use for breathing.

luxury

NOUN luxuries

A luxury is something expensive that you do not really need.