

ache

VERB aches, aching, ached
If a part of your body aches, it hurts. I was tired, and my head ached.

achieve

VERB achieves, achieving, achieved

If you achieve something, you manage to do it. I had finally achieved my dream of singing on stage!

achievement (NOUN)

An achievement is something good that you achieve. Winning the trophy was a great achievement for our team.

acid

NOUN acids

An acid is a chemical. Lemon and vinegar both contain acids.

acorn

NOUN acorns

An acorn is the seed of an oak tree.

acrobat

NOUN acrobats

An acrobat is a person who performs difficult gymnastic tricks on stage or in a circus.

act

VERB acts, acting, acted

1 The way that you act is the way you behave. My friend was acting very strangely.

2 When you act, you pretend to be a character in a play or film. If you enjoy acting, you might want to join a drama group and act in a play.

action

NOUN actions

1 An action is something that you do. Do you know the actions to this song?

2 An action film is one with a lot of exciting events.

active

ADJECTIVE

If you are active, you are moving around rather than sitting still.

activity

NOUN activities

An activity is something that you can do for fun. There are lots of after-school activities.

add

VERB adds, adding, added

1 If you add something, you put it with other things. I added some more water to my drink.

2 When you add up numbers, you count them together to find a total.

addition (NOUN)

When you do addition, you add numbers together.

address

NOUN addresses

1 Your address is the number of the house and the name of the street where you live.

2 Your email address is the set of words that someone uses to send emails to you.

adjective

NOUN adjectives

An adjective is a word such as “big” or “funny” that describes what someone or something is like. There are two adjectives in the sentence: He showed us his new bike, which we all thought was amazing.

admire

VERB admires, admiring, admired

1 If you admire someone, you like and respect the person very much. Which famous sports stars do you admire the most?

2 If you admire something, you enjoy looking at it. She stood back and admired her painting of the view from her bedroom window.

actor

NOUN actors

An actor is someone who acts in plays, films, or television programs. A woman who is an actor is sometimes called an actress.

Aa

b

c

d

e

f

g

h

i

j

k

l

m

n

o

p

q

r

s

t

u

v

w

x

y

z