

positive

ADJECTIVE

If you are positive about something, you are sure about it. I'm positive that I didn't leave my phone on the bus.

possible

ADJECTIVE

If something is possible, it can be done or it can happen. It is possible to swim without using your arms.

☛ Opposite: impossible possibility (NOUN)

If there is a possibility that something can happen, it is possible that it can happen.

possibly (ADVERB)

If something can possibly happen, it is possible that it can happen. You can't possibly swim all that way!

post

NOUN posts

1 A post is the station or task that someone, often someone in the military, is assigned to.

2 A post is a tall piece of wood or stone fixed into the ground.

postage

NOUN

Postage is the amount you have to pay to mail a letter or package.

postcard

NOUN postcards

A postcard is a small piece of card with a picture on one side, sometimes a view of the place you are staying at. On the other side, you write a message and the address of the person you want to send it to in the post.

poster

NOUN posters

A poster is a large picture or notice that you put on a wall as an advertisement or for decoration.

post office

NOUN post offices

A post office is a place where you go to buy stamps and materials for packaging, as well as send letters and parcels.

pot

NOUN pots

A pot is a container that you put things in.

potato

NOUN potatoes

A potato is a vegetable that you can boil, roast, fry, or bake. These mashed potatoes are delicious.

She likes collecting postcards.

postcards

He poured some juice into his glass.

pottery

NOUN

Pottery is a general name for objects that are made of clay and are dried and baked in a kiln. Mugs, plates, and vases can all be made from clay.

pounce

VERB pounces, pouncing, pounced

To pounce means to jump forward suddenly and try to catch something. The cat pounced on the mouse.

pour

VERB pours, pouring, poured

1 When you pour a liquid, you tip up the container it is in so that the liquid comes out. I poured some orange juice into my glass.

2 When liquid pours out of something, it comes out very quickly. Water was pouring out of the broken pipe.

c
d
e
f
g
h
i
j
k
l
m
n
o
Pp
q
r
s
t
u
v
w
x
y
z