

a private

ADJECTIVE

If something is private, it belongs to one person and other people must not touch it, look inside it, or use it. My diary is private.

f prize

NOUN prizes

A prize is something that you win.

Pp probably

ADVERB

If something will probably happen, it is very likely that it will happen.

s problem

NOUN problems

A problem is something that makes things difficult for you.

w produce

VERB produces, producing, produced

1 If you produce something, you make it appear.

2 To produce things means to make them. This factory produces cars.

professional

ADJECTIVE

Someone who is professional earns money by doing something, rather than doing it just for fun. Would you like to be a professional dancer?

profit

NOUN profits

A profit is money that you make for yourself when you sell something.

program

NOUN programs

1 A program is a set of instructions that tells a computer how to do a task.

2 A program is a show on television or radio.

3 A program is a small book that gives you information about an event. He looked at the program to see who was on stage first.

progress

NOUN

When you make progress, you get better at something. You have made good progress with your English this year.

project

NOUN projects

A project is a big piece of work in which you find out a lot of information and do a lot of work on a subject. We're doing a project on the Vikings.

promise

VERB promises, promising, promised

If you promise to do something, you say you will definitely do it.

pronoun

NOUN pronouns

A pronoun is a word such as "he," "she," or "it" that you use instead of a noun. There are two pronouns in the sentence: He picked up the apple and ate it.*

pronunciation

NOUN pronunciations

The pronunciation of a word is the way in which it is said.

proof

NOUN

If you have proof that something happened, you have something that shows it really happened.

proper

ADJECTIVE

1 Proper means correct. This is the proper way to hit a golf ball.

2 A proper noun is a noun that is the name of a person or place such as "George" and "Africa."