

a save

VERB saves, saving, saved

1 If you save someone, you take them away from danger.

The firefighter saved him from the burning house.

2 If you save something, you do not waste it.

Save power—turn off the light!*

3 If you save a document on a computer, you give an instruction to the computer to keep a copy of it.

4 If you save money, you keep it so that you can use it later. He saved up for a year to buy his bicycle.

savings (NOUN)

Your savings are money that you are keeping to use later.

scarecrow

NOUN scarecrows

A scarecrow is a figure made from sticks and old clothes and is used to scare birds, including crows, away from crops.

scarecrow

A scarecrow scares away birds.

saw

1 Saw is the past tense of see.

NOUN saws

2 A saw is a tool that you use for cutting wood. It has a blade with sharp teeth.

VERB saws, sawing, sawed

3 When you saw wood, you cut it using a saw.

Ss say

VERB says, saying, said

When you say something, you speak words. "Hurry up!" I said.

scale

NOUN scales

1 The scales on a fish are hard pieces of skin on its body.

2 You use scales to measure how much things weigh.

scaly (ADJECTIVE)

Scaly skin is skin that is dry, hard, and flaking off.

scanner

NOUN scanners

A scanner is a machine that copies writing or pictures from a page and sends them to a computer.

scar

NOUN scars

A scar is a mark that stays on your skin after a wound has healed.

scare

VERB scares, scaring, scared

If something scares you, it makes you feel afraid.

scared (ADJECTIVE)

If you are scared, you are afraid.

Are you scared of spiders?

scary (ADJECTIVE)

Something that is scary makes you feel afraid. That movie's too

scary for me!*

scarf

NOUN scarves

You wear a scarf around your neck to keep you warm.

scatter

VERB scatters, scattering, scattered

To scatter things means to spread them in many different directions.

scene

NOUN scenes

1 The scene of something is the place where it happens. Clues were found at the scene of the crime.

2 A scene in a play or film is one part of it.

3 A scene is a picture of something. The card showed a winter scene.

scenery (NOUN)

The scenery is everything that you can see around you. We stood on top of the mountain and admired the scenery.

scent

NOUN scents

1 The scent of a person or animal is the smell that they leave behind them. The dog followed the scent.

2 Scent is perfume.