

a
b
c
d
e
f
g
h
i
j
k
l
m
n
o
p
q
r
Ss
t
u
v
w
x
y
z

sequence

NOUN sequences

A sequence is a number of things that follow each other in order.

series

NOUN

1 A series of things is a number of them that follow one another in order.

2 A television series is a television program that is shown in regular episodes.

serious

ADJECTIVE

1 If something is serious, people need to think and talk about it carefully. Missing so much school is a very serious matter.

2 Someone who is serious is not smiling or laughing. The teacher came in looking serious.

3 If something is serious, it is worrying and could be dangerous.

seriously (ADVERB)

If someone is seriously hurt, they are badly hurt.

servant

NOUN servants

A servant is a person who works for another person in their home.

serve

VERB serves, serving, served

1 When you serve someone, you help them by giving them something that they want or need. The waiter will serve you at your table.

2 When you serve in a game like tennis, you start the game by hitting the ball to your opponent.

service

NOUN services

1 The service in a store or restaurant is how quick and helpful the staff are.

2 A service is something that is provided for people to use if they want to.

set

NOUN sets

1 A set of things is a group of things that belong together. Have you got a chess set?

VERB sets, setting, set

2 When something sets, it goes hard. The glue took a long time to set.

3 When the Sun sets, it goes down in the evening. The Sun sets in the west.

4 When you set a timer or an alarm, you change the controls so that it will go off at a particular time. I set my alarm for seven o'clock.

5 To place something in a location or a position. The teacher set the books on her desk.

settle

VERB settles, settling, settled

1 If you settle down, you stop moving around and sit or lie quietly. The teacher told us to settle down and get on with our work.

2 When you settle an argument, you stop arguing and agree on who is right. In the end, Dad settled the argument for us.

serve

It is his turn to serve.

Shape up!

Here are some common shapes and their names.

square

rectangle/
oblong

triangle

semicircle

circle