

a share

VERB shares, sharing, shared
1 When people share something, they take it in turns to use it. We haven't got enough cups so we'll have to share.

2 When people share something, they divide it up and give some to each person. I hope you're going to share your chocolate with everyone.

h shark

NOUN sharks
 A shark is a large fish with rows of sharp teeth. Sharks live in both cold and warm seas and eat fish or small water animals.

m sharp

ADJECTIVE sharper, sharpest
1 Something that is sharp has a thin edge or pointed end that can cut things. Careful—that knife is sharp!

2 If you have sharp eyes or ears, you are good at seeing or hearing things.

q sharpen (VERB)

If you sharpen a knife, you make it sharper.

Ss shatter

VERB shatters, shattering, shattered
 If something shatters, it breaks into very small pieces. The mirror fell to the floor and shattered into tiny pieces.

x shave

VERB shaves, shaving, shaved
 When you shave, you remove hair from your body with a razor.

shed

NOUN sheds
1 A shed is a small building that you keep things in.
 VERB sheds, shedding, shed
2 To shed something means to lose it because it drops off. Some trees shed all their leaves in the fall.

sheep

NOUN
 A sheep is an animal with a thick, woolly coat that is kept on farms to produce meat and wool.

sheer

ADJECTIVE
1 A sheer drop does not slope but goes straight down.
2 Sheer means complete. She smiled with sheer pleasure when she saw all the presents.

sheet

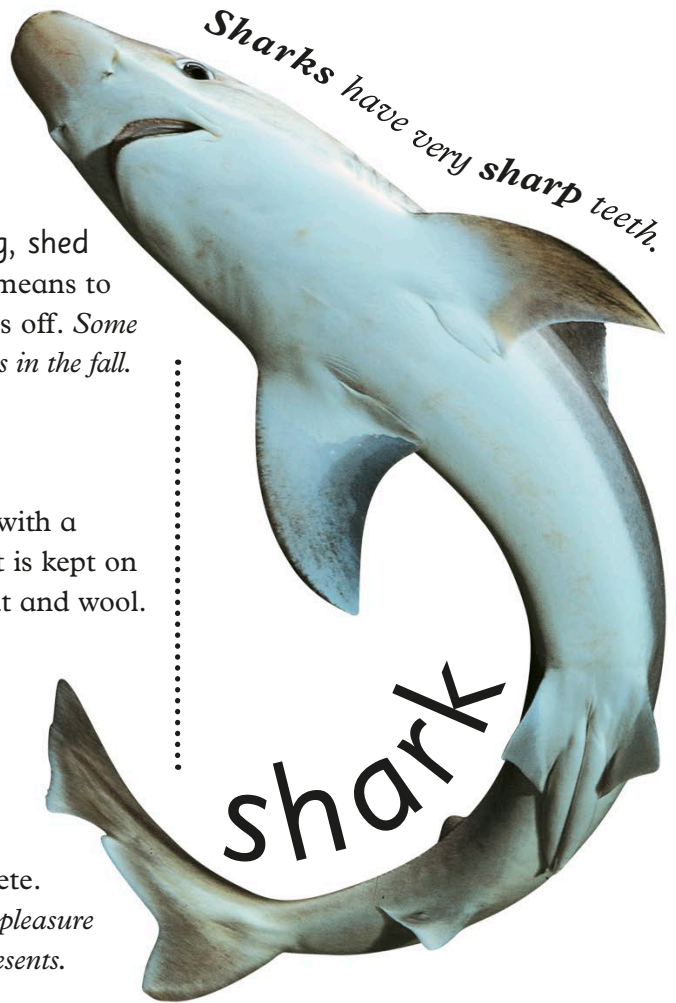

NOUN sheets
1 A sheet is a large piece of cloth that you put on a bed.
2 A sheet of something is a large, flat piece of it.

shelf

NOUN shelves
 A shelf is a piece of wood attached to a wall that you can put things on.

We collected some shells.

shell

NOUN shells
 A shell is a hard part that covers and protects something. Eggs, nuts, and animals such as snails, crabs, and tortoises have shells.

shells