

a small

ADJECTIVE smaller, smallest Something that is small is not very big.

d smart

ADJECTIVE smarter, smartest
 1 Someone who is smart is clever.
 2 Someone who looks smart is wearing clean, neat clothes.
 3 A smart machine can make some decisions for itself.

j smartphone

NOUN smartphones
 A smartphone is a mobile phone that lets you get on the internet.

m smash

VERB smashes, smashing, smashed
 To smash something means to break it into lots of pieces.

q smell

NOUN smells
 1 Your sense of smell is your ability to smell things.
 2 The smell that something has is what it is like when you sniff it. The flower had a lovely smell.
 3 If something smells, you can notice it by sniffing with your nose. Your feet smell!
 VERB smells, smelling, smelled or smelt 4 When you smell something, you use your nose to find out what it is like. I smelled the cheese to check if it was fresh.
smelly (ADJECTIVE)
 Something that is smelly has an unpleasant smell.

smile

VERB smiles, smiling, smiled
 When you smile, you show that you are happy by moving your mouth so that it turns upward at the sides.

smoke

NOUN
 Smoke is the black or white gas that comes from a fire.

snails

smooth

ADJECTIVE smoother, smoothest
 Something that is smooth is flat and even, with no sharp bumps or lumps.
You need a nice smooth surface for skateboarding.

smoothie

NOUN smoothies
 A smoothie is a thick drink that is made by crushing fruit or vegetables and adding milk, yogurt, or ice cream.

smuggle

VERB smuggles, smuggling, smuggled
 If you smuggle something into a place or out of a place, you move it there secretly.
We smuggled cookies into my bedroom for a midnight feast.

smuggler (NOUN)

A smuggler is someone who brings things into a country in a way that is against the law.

snack

NOUN snacks
 A snack is a small amount of food that you eat between meals or have instead of a meal.

snail

NOUN snails
 A snail is a small, slimy animal with no legs and a hard shell.

snake

NOUN snakes
 A snake is a long, thin animal with no legs. Some snakes are venomous, which means they have poison in their fangs. Others kill by squeezing their prey tightly.

Snails leave a trail of slime behind them.

snap

VERB snaps, snapping, snapped
 1 If you snap your fingers, you move them together so that they make a noise.
 2 If something snaps, it breaks suddenly. I was worried the rope might snap.
 3 If you snap at someone, you shout at them in an angry way. "Can't you see that I'm busy?" she snapped.

snarl

VERB snarls, snarling, snarled
 When an animal snarls, it growls fiercely and shows its teeth. The guard dog snarled at us.