

a store

NOUN stores

b 1 A place where things are sold.

VERB stores, storing, stored

c 2 When you store things, you put them away and keep them until you need them.e storm

NOUN storms

f When there is a storm, there is a strong wind and heavy rain, hail, or snow.h stormy (ADJECTIVE)i When the weather is stormy, there is a storm. *It isn't safe to go out in a boat in stormy weather.k story

NOUN stories

l A story tells you about things that have happened to someone. Some stories are about real people and are true, and some are about imaginary people and are not true.p straight

ADJECTIVE straighter, straightest

q Something that is straight is not bent or curved.Ss straighten (VERB)t If you straighten something, you make it straight.u stranded

ADJECTIVE

v If you are stranded in a place, you are stuck there and are unable to leave.x strange

ADJECTIVE stranger, strangest

y Something that is strange is not normal, or not how you expect it to be.stranger

NOUN strangers

A stranger is a person you do not know.

strap

NOUN straps

A strap is a strip of leather or cloth that you use for fastening or holding things. *The strap on my satchel has broken.straw

NOUN straws

1 Straw is stalks of dried wheat that you put on the ground for animals to lie on.2 A straw is a small hollow tube that you use for drinking through. *I drank my milkshake through a bendy straw.strawberry

NOUN strawberries

A strawberry is a small, red fruit that is soft and sweet. *We grew strawberries in our garden this year.stray

ADJECTIVE

A stray dog or cat lives outside and does not have a home. *She fed the stray cat that turned up in her yard.stream

NOUN streams

A stream is a small river. *The water in the stream looked clean enough to drink.street

NOUN streets

A street is a road in a city or town. *What is the name of the street you live on?strength

NOUN

Strength is how strong something or someone is.

strengthen (VERB)

To strengthen something means to make it stronger.

stress

NOUN

If you are under stress, you have a lot of things that you are worried about.

stressful (ADJECTIVE)

Something that is stressful makes you feel worried.

stretch

VERB stretches, stretching, stretched

1 When you stretch something, you pull it so that it becomes longer or bigger.2 When you stretch out a part of your body, you reach out with it as much as you can.

s t r e t c h
It's good to stretch before exercising.

