

a town

NOUN towns

A town is a place with houses and other buildings, where people live, work, and shop. A town is smaller than a city but larger than a village.

e toy

NOUN toys

A toy is something that you play with.

h trace

VERB traces, tracing, traced

When you trace a picture, you copy it by putting a sheet of thin paper over it and drawing around the outline.

l track

NOUN tracks

1 A track is a mark that a person or animal leaves as they walk along. The fox left tracks in the snow.

2 A track is a path or rough road.

3 A track is a piece of ground that has lines marked on it so that it can be used for races.

s tractor

NOUN tractors

A tractor is a vehicle that people use on farms.

u tradition

NOUN traditions

A tradition is something that people have done in the same way for many years.

traditional (ADJECTIVE)

If something is traditional, people do it as a tradition. It is traditional for the bride to wear a white dress.

traffic

NOUN

The traffic on a road is all the cars, buses, trucks, and other vehicles on it. There was a lot of traffic on the bridge.

traffic lights (NOUN)

Traffic lights are different-colored lights that tell drivers when they must stop and when they can go.

tragedy

NOUN tragedies

A tragedy is a very sad event, for example one in which people die or are hurt.

trail

NOUN trails

A trail is a narrow path. We followed a nature trail through the woods.

train

NOUN trains

1 A train is a vehicle that travels on railroad lines.

VERB trains, training, trained

2 When you train, you practice certain skills. She trains for track three hours a day.

3 When you train someone, you teach them to do something. He trained his dog to sit.

trainer

NOUN

A trainer is a person who coaches and instructs people.

tram

NOUN trams

A tram is a vehicle like a bus that goes along rails in the road in some cities.

trampoline

NOUN trampolines

A trampoline is a piece of equipment that you can bounce on. We spent hours jumping on the trampoline.

translate

VERB translates, translating, translated

When you translate something, you change it into a different language. I translated the poem from English into French.

transportation

NOUN

1 Transportation is a way of carrying goods or people from one place to another. Different methods of transportation are used to travel on land, on water, and in the air. My favorite method of transportation is flying.

VERB transports, transporting, transported

2 To transport people or things means to take them from one place to another.

The goods were transported by train.

trap

NOUN traps

1 A trap is a machine or trick that you use to catch someone.

VERB traps, trapping, trapped

2 When you trap a person or animal, you catch them and hold them so that they cannot get away.

trapped (ADJECTIVE)

If someone is trapped, they cannot escape from a place. The trapped man had to be rescued.