

a camouflage

NOUN

Camouflage is when an animal has a pattern or color on their body that helps them look like the things around them so that they are hard to see and can hide.

camp

VERB camps, camping, camped

When you camp, you sleep in a tent outdoors. We went camping in the forest.

can

NOUN cans

1 A can is a metal container for food or drink.

VERB can, could

2 If you can do something, you are able to do it.

canal

NOUN canals

A canal is a river made by people that boats can travel along.

cancel

VERB cancels, canceling, canceled

If you cancel an event, you decide that it will not happen.

The game was canceled due to the bad weather.

cancer

NOUN cancers

Cancer is a serious disease that can develop in your body.

candle

NOUN candles

A candle is a stick of wax with a piece of string called a wick running through the middle. You can burn candles to give light.

cannon

NOUN cannons

A cannon is a very large gun that fires heavy metal balls.

canoe

NOUN canoes

A canoe is a light, narrow boat that you move along using a paddle.

cap

NOUN caps

A cap is a hat with a stiff part sticking out at the front, over your eyes.

capable

ADJECTIVE

If you are capable of doing something, you can do it.

capacity

NOUN

The capacity of a container is the amount that it can hold.

capital

NOUN capitals

The capital of a country is the city where it has its government offices. Paris is the capital of France.

capital letter

NOUN capital letters

Capital letters are big letters such as A, B, or C that you use at the beginning of sentences or at the beginning of names.

captain

NOUN captains

1 The captain of a ship or plane is the person who is in charge of it.

2 The captain of a team is the leader of the team.

capture

VERB captures, capturing, captured

To capture someone means to catch them. A lion escaped from the zoo, but it was soon captured again.

car

NOUN cars

A car is a vehicle with an engine that people can drive and travel in.

