

a decide

VERB decides, deciding, decided

If you decide to do something, you make up your mind to do it. We decided to go to the beach for the day.

decimal

NOUN decimals

1 A decimal system is one that counts in tens.

2 A decimal is a number written with a dot, for example 1.5. How can you write $\frac{1}{2}$ as a decimal?

decision

NOUN decisions

A decision is something that you decide to do. Have you made a decision yet?

deck

NOUN decks

The deck on a ship is one of the floors.

declare

VERB declares, declaring, declared

If you declare something, you say it out loud for everyone to hear. I declare you are the winner!

decorate

VERB decorates, decorating, decorated

If you decorate something, you paint it or put things on it to make it look nice. We decorated the school hall for the party.

decoration (NOUN)

Decorations are things you put up in a place to make it look nice.

decrease

VERB decreases, decreasing, decreased

When something decreases, it becomes less. The temperature usually decreases at night.

☛ Opposite: increase

deep

ADJECTIVE deeper, deepest

Something that is deep goes down a long way. The river is too deep to wade across.

deer

NOUN

A deer is an animal with hooves that eats grass and leaves. A male deer is called a stag and has large, branching horns called antlers. A female deer is called a doe.

☛ Be careful with spelling:

deer Lots of deer live in the forest.

dear Dear Grandma, I hope you are well.

defeat

VERB defeats, defeating, defeated

If you defeat someone, you win a game or a battle against them.

defend

VERB defends, defending, defended

If you defend something, you protect it or guard it. They sent soldiers to defend the city.

definitely

ADVERB

If something is definitely true, it is certain that it is true. I can definitely come to your party on Saturday.

definition

NOUN definitions

A definition is a sentence that explains what a word means.

degree

NOUN degrees

We measure the temperature in degrees. We use the symbol ° to show degrees, for example 29°.

delay

VERB delays, delaying, delayed

If something is delayed, it happens or arrives later than you expected. The bus was delayed because of the snow.

delete

VERB deletes, deleting, deleted

If you delete writing, you remove it.

deliberate

ADJECTIVE

If something is deliberate, someone does it on purpose.

deliberately (ADVERB)

If you do something deliberately, you do it on purpose. I didn't break the window deliberately—it was an accident!

delicate

ADJECTIVE

If something is delicate, it is not very strong and will break easily.

People like to decorate their houses.