

a
b
c
Dd
e
f
g
h
i
j
k
l
m
n
o
p
q
r
s t
u
v
w
x
y
zdip

VERB dips, dipping, dipped
If you dip something into a liquid, you put it in and then take it out again. I dipped the strawberry into the chocolate sauce and then ate it.

direct

VERB directs, directing, directed
1 If you direct someone to a place, you tell them how to get there. Can you direct me to the sports center, please?

2 The person who directs a film or play is in charge of it and tells other people what they should do and how they should act.

ADJECTIVE

3 A direct way to a place is short and quick. We got a direct flight to New York.

director (NOUN)

A director is someone who directs a film.

direction

NOUN directions

The direction you are moving in is the way you are going or the place you are traveling toward. We set off in the direction of the beach.

dirty

ADJECTIVE dirtier, dirtiest
Something that is dirty is not clean. Can you please take off your dirty football cleats?

disabled

ADJECTIVE

Someone who is disabled cannot use a part of their body very well because it is weak or injured.

disability (NOUN)

Someone who has a disability is disabled.

disagree

VERB disagrees, disagreeing, disagreed
If you disagree with someone, you have different ideas to them and you think they are wrong.

☛ Opposite: agree

disappear

VERB disappears, disappearing, disappeared
If something disappears, it goes out of sight. The Sun disappeared behind a cloud.

☛ Opposite: appear

disappointed

ADJECTIVE

If you are disappointed, you are sad or upset because something did not happen the way you wanted it to happen. We were disappointed with the weather.

disaster

NOUN disasters

A disaster is a terrible event in which people are injured or killed and things are damaged.

discover

VERB discovers, discovering, discovered
If you discover something, you find it or learn about it. We discovered an old map in the attic.

discuss

VERB discusses, discussing, discussed
If you discuss something, you talk about it with someone else. We discussed what we should do with the money we had found.

discussion (NOUN)

If you have a discussion, you discuss something.

disease

NOUN diseases
A disease is an illness.

disguise

NOUN disguises
A disguise is a set of clothes or a mask that you wear to hide who you really are.

disgusting

ADJECTIVE

Something that is disgusting is very unpleasant and makes you feel a bit sick. Yuck! This food is disgusting!

dish

NOUN dishes

1 A dish is a plate or bowl that you serve food in.
2 A dish is a kind of food that has been cooked or prepared in a particular way. My aunt cooked a delicious vegetarian dish.

dishonest

ADJECTIVE

Someone who is dishonest tells lies or steals things.
☛ Opposite: honest

dishwasher

NOUN dishwashers

A dishwasher is a machine that washes plates, cups, and other things you use for eating.

disk (or disc)

NOUN disks (or discs)

A disk is a flat, circular object that has computer information on it.