

a b c d e
Ff

feel

VERB feels, feeling, felt

1 The way you feel is the mood you are in or the emotions that you have. I feel happy today.

2 If you feel something, you touch it with your hands or your body so that you know what it is like. Feel the cat's lovely, soft fur.*

ferocious

feeling

NOUN feelings

A feeling is an emotion, such as happiness, sadness, or anger.

fell

☞ See fall.

felt

☞ See feel.

female

ADJECTIVE

Female animals produce eggs or give birth to babies.

fence

NOUN fences

A fence is a barrier that separates one piece of land from another.

ferocious

ADJECTIVE

A ferocious animal is fierce and dangerous.

ferry

NOUN ferries

A ferry is a boat that carries people and cars across a small stretch of water.

festival

NOUN festivals

A festival is a celebration or special event, often with music and dancing.

fetch

VERB fetches, fetching, fetched

If you fetch something, you go and get it and bring it back.

The dog fetched the stick.

fête

NOUN fêtes

A fête is an outdoor event where there are games, and stalls selling different things.

fever

NOUN fevers

If you have a fever, your body is very hot because you are ill. I couldn't go to school because I had a fever.

few

ADJECTIVE fewer, fewest

A few means a small number of people or things. There are a few jelly beans left in the bag.

fiction

NOUN

Stories that have been made up and are not true are called fiction. Do you enjoy reading fiction or non-fiction?

☞ Opposite: non-fiction

fiddle

VERB fiddles, fiddling, fiddled

If you fiddle with something, you touch it or move it.

You mustn't fiddle with the controls.

fidget

VERB fidgets, fidgeting, fidgeted

If you fidget, you keep moving around in an annoying way.

field

NOUN fields

A field is an area of land where grass grows, crops are grown, or animals graze.

fierce

ADJECTIVE fiercer, fiercest

A fierce person or animal is violent and dangerous.

My dog looks fierce, but he's really very friendly.

fiercely (ADVERB)

If you say or do something fiercely, you do it in a fierce way. "Go away!" he shouted fiercely.

fight

VERB fights, fighting, fought

1 When people fight, they hit each other or use weapons to try to hurt each other.

2 When people fight, they argue with each other.