Fact or fiction?

Curiosity about aliens has produced lots of ideas about what they might look like. In some books and films, aliens look much like humans, with two arms and legs, or resemble giant blobs or spiders.

Flying saucers

Lots of people claim to have seen flying saucers, or Unidentified Flying Objects (UFOs), while some claim to have visited alien spaceships. But do UFOs really exist? What is this image? Turn to page 90 to find out more.
