

Sports star

Czechia has produced many great tennis players. Petra Kvitová has won 27 singles titles, including two Wimbledon Championships.

Czechia

Astronomical Clock

This medieval clock has struck the time in Prague since 1410. It is an astronomical clock, which means it not only marks the hours but also the movements of the sun, moon, and stars.

Winding walkway

The Sky Walk is a wooden walkway in the mountain resort of Dolní Morava. Reaching a height of 180 ft (55 m) above the ground, it offers majestic views of the Morava Valley.

Officially known as the Czech Republic, Czechia lies in the heart of Europe and is known for its castles, medieval towns, and several spa sites. Prague, the capital, is known as the “City of 100 Spires” for its many churches and towers.

- 📏 30,450 sq miles (78,867 sq km)
- 👤 10.7 million
- ★ Prague
- 🗣️ Czech, other languages (+7)

Glassmaking

Czechia is renowned for the quality of its glassmaking, a tradition that dates back to the 13th century. These vases (left) are from the 19th century.

Charles Bridge

This famous bridge over the Vltava River in Prague is lined with statues. It connects the Old Town with the busy Malá Strana district (seen here).

