

Europe

Bosnia and Herzegovina

Outdoor chess

Giant chess boards are scattered around the streets and parks of Sarajevo so locals can challenge each other to a game.

Natural spring

The Vrelo Bune spring feeds from a cliff cave into the Buna River at Blagaj, a scenic spot with a monastery.

0 40 km
0 40 miles
(approximate scale)

Standing 574 ft (175 m) tall, the Avaz Twist Tower is the tallest building in Sarajevo.

Connected capital

Dating back to 1885, Sarajevo's tram network is thought to be one of the oldest in Europe. A total of 95 trams connect different parts of the city.

Spectacular bridge

Meaning "Old Bridge," Stari Most links the two halves of the city of Mostar. Fearless divers jump off the bridge into the Neretva River, 75 ft (23 m) below.

- 📏 19,767 sq miles (51,197 sq km)
- 👤 3.8 million
- ★ Sarajevo
- 🇷🇸 Bosnian, Serbian, Croatian

This country is made up of the two regions of Bosnia and Herzegovina. It has popular ski slopes, striking waterfalls, and the historic city of Mostar, a mix of Ottoman architecture and modern street art.

