

Bulgaria

Europe

Varna gold treasure

The oldest gold treasures ever found were discovered in prehistoric graves in the city of Varna. They date back to 4600 BCE.

Valley of the Roses

Rare damask roses are grown in a valley in the foothills of the Balkan Mountains. They are cultivated for their perfumed oil.

0 50 km
0 50 miles
(approximate scale)

Kukeri tradition

During the winter festival of Surva, men and boys wear animal skins and furs to scare off evil spirits.

Bulgaria is a mountainous country with a Black Sea coastline of long sandy beaches. To the north, the Danube River marks its border with Romania.

42,810 sq miles (110,879 sq km)

7 million

Sofia

Bulgarian, other languages (+2)

Shopska

Bulgaria's national dish—shopska—is a salad of tomato, cucumber, onion, and cheese.

Rila Monastery

Bulgaria's patron saint, John of Rila, established this five-domed monastery in the Rila Mountains.

Seven Rila Lakes

A group of seven lakes named after their various shapes, including "fish," "eye," and "tear," are situated near Musala, the highest peak in the Rila Mountains south of Sofia.

