

Romania

Europe

Wall paintings

Monasteries in the Bucovina region, near Suceava, are painted with colorful 15th-century frescoes that depict Biblical stories.

Bran Castle

Some say this 14th-century castle in the Carpathian Mountains was Bram Stoker's inspiration for the setting of his fictional story of Dracula.

Mărțișor amulets

Every Mărțișor (meaning "March 1"), at the start of spring, Romanians give their loved ones lucky amulets.

Red and white trinkets are worn around the neck or wrist in March.

Great white pelicans

In summer, thousands of great white pelicans congregate to breed in the Danube River Delta, east of Tulcea.

A handheld ribbon is twirled by a rhythmic gymnast.

Gymnastics

Romania has a long history of success in gymnastics. Romanian gymnasts have won more than 70 medals at the Summer Olympics.

- 92,043 sq miles (238,391 sq km)
- 21.3 million
- Bucharest
- Romanian, other languages (+3)

Romania, in southeastern Europe, is one of the largest countries in Europe. It is known for its Carpathian Mountains, Transylvanian forests, and castles.

