

Russia

Moscow skyscrapers

The biggest city in Russia is the capital, Moscow, situated on the Moskva River. Modern skyscrapers in the business district contrast with the historic architecture of Red Square.

Matryoshka dolls

Wooden stacking dolls called matryoshkas, meaning "little matrons," have been handmade in Russia since the 1890s. They fit inside one another and form part of a set.

St. Petersburg

The golden dome of St. Isaac's Cathedral dominates the skyline of Russia's former imperial capital. The historic port city and its palaces are home to world-class museums.

Russia is the largest country in the world. Spanning 11 time zones, it is spread over two continents, from eastern Europe to the Pacific coast of Asia. The Ural Mountains divide Russia in two. The Siberian wilderness in the east has the coldest inhabited place on Earth: Oymyakon, east of Yakutsk. Here, the temperature falls below -58°F (-50°C) in the winter.

- 6,601,668 sq miles (17,098,242 sq km)
- 141.7 million
- Moscow
- Russian, Tatar, Ukrainian, Chavash, other languages