

Chidaoba wrestling

These boys are taking part in chidaoba, an ancient form of one-on-one martial arts. Each five-minute match is accompanied by folk music and dance.

0 75 km
0 75 miles
(approximate scale)

Georgia

Asia

Land of mountains

The spectacular Caucasus Mountains sweep through Georgia. The remote village of Ushguli (pictured below) sits at the foot of Mount Shkhara, the country's highest peak.

Sitting at the crossroads of Asia and Europe, Georgia is a small nation on the eastern shore of the Black Sea. Its colorful capital, Tbilisi, has many historic sites as well as modern architecture.

- 26,911 sq miles (69,700 sq km)
- 4 million
- Tbilisi
- Georgian, other languages (+6)

Etchmiadzin Cathedral

Located west of Yerevan, this cathedral is the heart of the Armenian Christian Church. Floral and geometric patterns decorate its interiors.

Golden fruit

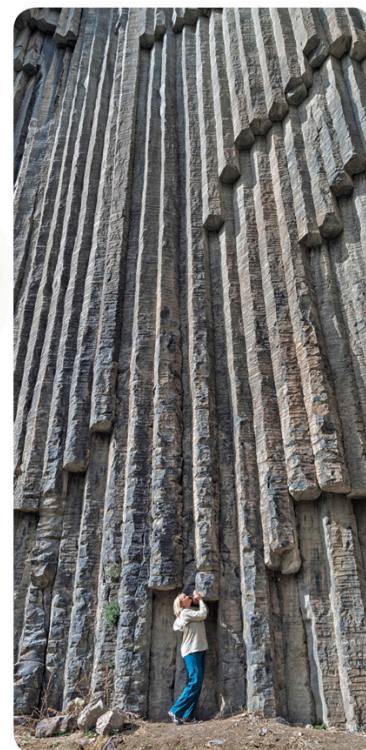

The national fruit of Armenia is the apricot, which has grown in this country for at least 3,000 years.

Armenia

Yerevan is located in the Armenian highlands.

0 50 km
0 50 miles
(approximate scale)

Symphony of stones

A rock formation in Garni Canyon, southeast of Yerevan, is called the Symphony of Stones. Its tall basalt columns resemble the pipes of an organ.

Armenia's mountainous terrain has many fast-flowing rivers, canyons, and extinct volcanoes. Many people in this landlocked country are farmers, but mining and tourism are growing industries in Armenia.

- 11,484 sq miles (29,743 sq km)
- 3 million
- Yerevan
- Armenian, Azeri, Russian