

More than 20 muscles move each ear, helping the caracal hear the quietest of sounds.

Wild hunter

A wildcat found in the semideserts of Jordan, the caracal is an agile predator that uses its powerful hind legs and keen sense of hearing to catch prey such as birds and rodents.

Traditional headdress

The kaffiyeh is a patterned Arab headdress, often worn by men in the Middle East.

Red and white are two of the national colors of Jordan.

Jordan

Lost city

The ancient city of Petra was at its peak 2,000 years ago. Among its buildings were temples and tombs carved into sandstone cliffs. Ruins at the site include the Ad Deir Monastery, which has huge chambers cut out of the rock.

Bedouin feast

Derived from Bedouin cuisine and popular in Jordan, mansaf is a dish of lamb cooked with yogurt and accompanied by rice.

- 34,495 sq miles (89,342 sq km)
- 10.8 million
- Amman
- Arabic

Historic Amman

Originally built on seven hills, Amman is one of the Arab world's largest cities. At its heart, the ruins of the ancient Amman Citadel (fort), including a Roman temple, sit on a hill overlooking the Old City.

Dead Sea

This famous lake is one of the saltiest bodies of water in the world, almost 10 times saltier than the oceans. This makes the water so dense that people can float without swimming.

The modern-day nation of Jordan was founded in 1921. Vast areas of the country are desert land, where Bedouin people follow a nomadic lifestyle. Millions of Jordanians also live in modern cities such as Amman.

