

El Salvador

Shelled swimmer

The world's largest turtle, the leatherback, is found off the coast of the country. It is named after the texture of its shell.

0 20 km
0 20 miles
(approximate scale)

Xuc dance

Originally created to celebrate sugar cane harvests, this lively folk dance is now performed at carnivals.

- 8,124 sq miles (21,041 sq km)
- 6.5 million
- San Salvador
- Spanish

Monumento al Divino Salvador del Mundo

This statue of Jesus Christ has stood in San Salvador since 1942.

This tiny country is the most densely populated in Central America, with most people living around the central lakes. It has more than 20 active volcanoes and often experiences earthquakes.

Honduras

Ruins of Copán

Among the ruins are intricate stone carvings. This one shows the city's 13th ruler.

Growing bananas

Bananas have been a major export since the late 19th century, but some banana crops are destroyed by seasonal hurricanes.

Scarlet macaw

The national bird of Honduras is the scarlet macaw, one of the world's largest parrots.

- 43,278 sq miles (112,090 sq km)
- 9.2 million
- Tegucigalpa
- Spanish, other languages (+2)

Honduras sits between the Caribbean Sea to the north and the Pacific Ocean to the south. To the west of the country lie the ruins of the ancient Mayan city of Copán, which dates back to the 5th century.