

Asia

Singapore

Marina Bay Sands is a luxury hotel.

Bumboat travel

Brightly colored bumboats cruise the Singapore River, providing a water taxi service or taking tourists on trips.

Street food

The lively streets of Singapore are known for food stalls that serve a broad range of local dishes and international cuisine.

Mouse deer

At only 18 in (45 cm) tall, the mouse deer of Singapore is the world's smallest hoofed mammal.

- ☑ 277 sq miles (719 sq km)
- 👤 6.2 million
- ★ Singapore
- 🗣️ Mandarin, Malay, Tamil, English

A bridge connects this tropical island country in Southeast Asia to mainland Malaysia. Singapore is a city-state and a prosperous center of finance and industry.

0 6 km
0 6 miles
(approximate scale)

The Buddha is the founder of Buddhism.

Buddha Tooth Relic Temple

This statue of the Buddha is displayed in a temple that also holds a tooth believed to be from the Buddha himself.

Gardens by the Bay

Opened in 2012, this award-winning nature park of gardens and greenhouses is a star attraction in Singapore.

The park features illuminated structures that reach up to 164 ft (50 m).

