

Palau

Palau is a nation of more than 300 islands in the western Pacific Ocean. Many Palauans make a living from tourism, agriculture, or fishing.

- ✔ 177 sq miles (459 sq km)
- 👤 21,700
- ★ Ngerulmud
- 🌐 Palauan, English, other languages (+4)

Built in 1890, Airai Bai is a traditional Palauan men's meeting house.

Marshall Islands

Just north of the equator in the Pacific Ocean, this chain of coral atolls and more than 1,000 islets teems with marine life.

- ✔ 70 sq miles (181 sq km)
- 👤 77,900
- ★ Majuro
- 🌐 Marshallese, English, other languages (+2)

Copra (dried coconut kernel) and coconut oil are exported by the islands.

Nauru

This rocky island nation has to import most of its food, water, and other goods from abroad.

- ✔ 8 sq miles (21 sq km)
- 👤 11,000
- ★ Yaren
- 🌐 Nauruan, Kiribati, other languages (+3)

Nauruan Itte Detenamo is an international medal-winning weight lifter.

Federated States of Micronesia

The 600 islands of this tropical country fall into two types: forested volcanic islands and coral atolls. Many Micronesians make a living from fishing.

- ✔ 271 sq miles (702 sq km)
- 👤 102,450
- ★ Palikir
- 🌐 Trukese, other languages (+4)

Spicy peppercorns are grown on the island of Pohnpei.

Solomon Islands

Most people in the lush, tropical Solomon Islands live in rural villages. Like many other South Pacific nations, this country has many volcanoes and often experiences earthquakes and cyclones.

- ✔ 11,157 sq miles (28,896 sq km)
- 👤 685,100
- ★ Honiara
- 🌐 English, Pidgin English, other languages (+121)

Solomon Island bands play traditional music on bamboo instruments.

