

Blue mountains

Clouds of mist hang over Jamaica's longest mountain range. The plantations here produce some of the finest coffee in the world.

The capital city of Kingston is surrounded by mountains on three sides.

Caribbean hermit crab

These land crabs protect their soft bodies with the empty shells of other animals.

Jamaican roselle

Known for its health benefits, this flower is used to make sauces, salads, and herbal teas.

Girls' education

In the past, many Jamaican girls did not get an education, but now most girls go to school and more than a third enroll in college.

- ☑ 4,244 sq miles (10,991 sq km)
- 👤 2.8 million
- ★ Kingston
- 🗨 English Creole, English

Jamaica is the third-largest island in the Caribbean, 146 miles (234 km) long and up to 50 miles (80 km) wide. With beautiful beaches, tourism is its main industry.

Dominican Republic

Dominican Carnival

February is a time for celebration in the Dominican Republic. The annual carnival sees colorful parades and performances that reflect local traditions.

El Limón Waterfall

Surrounded by tropical rain forest, the El Limón near Samaná cascades more than 164 ft (50 m) to a pool popular with swimmers.

The Dominican Republic makes up the eastern part of Hispaniola island. This country has the Caribbean's tallest mountain—Pico Duarte—and its lowest point, Lake Enriquillo.

- ☑ 18,792 sq miles (48,670 sq km)
- 👤 10.5 million
- ★ Santo Domingo
- 🗨 Spanish, French Creole