

Barbados

The Barbadian flag depicts the trident belonging to Neptune, the Roman god of the sea.

0 8 km
0 8 miles
(approximate scale)

Beach life

Palm-fringed beaches and tropical seas attract millions of visitors to Barbados.

- 166 sq miles (430 sq km)
- 294,560
- Bridgetown
- Bajan, English

Barbados became a British colony in the 17th century and gained independence in 1966. With its white-sand beaches and clear, turquoise waters, this sunny Caribbean island is a popular tourist destination.

Global superstar

The Barbados-born pop singer Rihanna has sold millions of records across the world and won nine Grammy awards.

Barbados anole

An inhabitant of the island's rain forests, this green lizard blends in with leafy foliage.

Sharp claws help the anole cling to tree branches.

Grenada

Fragrant spice

Grenada is one of the world's largest producers of nutmeg. This sweet spice, which features on the left side of the national flag, was introduced to Grenada by traders in 1843.

St. George's sits on a horseshoe-shaped harbor.

0 10 km
0 10 miles
(approximate scale)

Cascading waterfalls

The Seven Sisters Falls are one of several natural wonders found in the Grand Etang National Park on Grenada island.

- 133 sq miles (344 sq km)
- 113,100
- St. George's
- English, English Creole

Grenada is as famous for its spice production as it is for its scenic beaches. This mountainous, tropical country is made up of one large island, Grenada, and six smaller ones.