

Flamingos of Lake Bogoria

Lesser flamingos flock to this Great Rift Valley lake near Nakuru to feed on brine shrimp and blue-green algae in the very salty waters. This food gives these birds their pink coloring.

Olympian runner

Kenyan athletes have often gained victory in distance running. David Rudisha has won two Olympic gold medals and holds a world record in the 800 m race.

Kenya

Africa

Kiondo baskets

Kikuyu, Kamba, and Taita people weave decorative bags from sisal fibers. Known as kiondos, these are used to carry market goods and store supplies.

Most Samburu girls wear bead necklaces.

Samburu people

In northern Kenya, the Samburu live as they always have, by raising cattle, moving around to find grazing, and building mud and grass huts for shelter.

Geothermal power station

Kenya was the first country in Africa to build geothermal power stations. In the Great Rift Valley, these use energy stored inside Earth to generate power.

Maasai Mara lions

Hundreds of lions live in prides in the Maasai Mara National Reserve, west of Nairobi. They live alongside buffalo, many species of antelope, and other big cats.

Famous for its wildlife, Kenya sees the annual migration of millions of animals across the Maasai Mara, and the Great Rift Valley lakes attract flocks of birds. The capital, Nairobi, is a thriving modern city, and the port, Mombasa, is one of Africa's most multicultural cities.

- 📏 224,081 sq miles (580,367 sq km)
- 👤 53.5 million
- ★ Nairobi
- 🗣️ Kiswahili, English, Kikuyu, other languages (+3)

