

Sweden

Europe

Alfred Nobel was a 19th-century Swedish inventor, chemist, and engineer.

Nobel Prize

First awarded in 1901, the annual Nobel Prize recognizes major achievements in chemistry, physics, medicine, literature, and peace.

Dala horses

Since the 17th century, these decorative wooden horses have been handcrafted and sold throughout Sweden.

Icehotel

In 1989, the world's first hotel made entirely of ice was built near Kiruna in northern Sweden.

Medieval Stockholm

Sweden's capital city is built across 14 islands. On one of them lies the medieval Old Town, known for its cobbled streets and colorful buildings.

Reindeer

Thick, furry coats for warmth and strong hoofs to dig out food make reindeer well suited to the country's cold mountains, where they number in the thousands in herds kept by the indigenous Sámi people.

Kräftskiva

For this traditional Swedish summer celebration, friends and family gather to feast on crayfish, often wearing themed paper hats.

Climate activism

In 2018, at age 15, Greta Thunberg found world recognition when she stopped going to school and sat outside the Swedish Parliament, calling for action on climate change.

- 173,860 sq miles (450,295 sq km)
- 10.2 million
- Stockholm
- Swedish, other languages (+5)

The natural landscape of this Scandinavian country in northern Europe changes from the icy peaks of mountains such as the Kebnekaise, past rolling hills and freshwater streams, to thousands of islands off its Baltic Sea coastline.