

Estonia

Siberian flying squirrel

Despite its name, this small species of squirrel leaps rather than flies through the Estonian forests to escape predators.

Kõpu Lighthouse
The oldest lighthouse in the Baltic States is Kõpu on the Estonian island of Hiiumaa. It has guided the way for ships since 1531.

Tallinn is the country's largest and most populated city.

Estonian Song Festival

Every five years, this festival in Tallinn showcases a group of 25,000 singers and dancers for an audience of nearly 100,000.

Dancers in traditional clothing perform at the festival.

Delivery robots

Estonian engineers in Tallinn have designed self-driving robots to deliver packages, shopping, or food.

Old Town in Tallinn

The capital of Tallinn has an Old Town known for its medieval architecture, including St. Olaf's Church, which is believed to have been built around the 13th century.

- 17,463 sq miles (45,228 sq km)
- 1.2 million
- Tallinn
- Estonian, Russian

Estonia is the smallest of the three states on the Baltic Sea. It has many lakes and forests and is made up of more than 1,500 islands. Estonia is one of the world's most digitally connected countries, with almost all services available online.