

Poland

European bison

Although European bison were hunted to the point of extinction in 1921, herds have successfully been reintroduced to Poland, especially in Białowieża Forest.

White-tailed eagle

Poland's national bird is the white-tailed eagle. This large sea eagle is depicted on the national coat of arms wearing a crown.

Warsaw reborn

Poland's capital was badly damaged in World War II, but the historic old town was reconstructed and a bustling modern city has grown up alongside.

Wrocław is a city on the banks of the Oder River.

Corpus Christi

The small town of Łowicz comes alive on this public holiday as priests parade with crosses, flower girls throw petals, and families come together to share feasts.

The Mermaid

This statue of a mermaid is an iconic symbol of the capital. Legend goes that a syrenka, or a mermaid, swam up the Wisła River to Warsaw and became captivated by the city.
