Black Forest

With evergreen trees and beautiful lakes, the Black Forest is popular with tourists. It got its name from the dense conifers that appear almost black from afar.

Neuschwanstein Castle

In the 19th century, King Ludwig II of Bavaria commissioned a castle near Munich in honor of composer Richard Wagner. The result was Neuschwanstein, a fairy-tale castle with towers and turrets.

Neuschwanstein Castle was the inspiration for the Sleeping Beauty Castle at Disneyland.

Soccer fans

The most popular sport in Germany is soccer. The national team has won the World Cup four times.

Beethoven

The 18th-century German composer Ludwig van Beethoven is remembered for many great musical works. Other famous German composers include J. S. Bach and J. Brahms.
