

The Netherlands

Great masters

The 17th-century Dutch painter Rembrandt van Rijn is one of the country's great masters. His works include many self-portraits, painted throughout his life.

Dutch tulips

The Netherlands has been the center of the world's cut flower market for centuries.

The capital and largest city is Amsterdam, but the parliament sits in The Hague.

THE HAGUE
(S-GRAVENHAGE)

- 📏 16,039 sq miles (41,543 sq km)
- 👤 17.3 million
- ★ Amsterdam and The Hague
- 🇳🇱 Dutch, Frisian

Almost half of the low-lying Netherlands has been reclaimed from the sea, creating farmland for cultivating flowers and raising cattle. This flat landscape is known for its canals.

Top team
The Dutch women's field hockey team is the most successful in history with eight World Cup wins.

Anne Frank

The famous Jewish diarist Anne Frank hid with her family in an Amsterdam building during World War II.

Picturesque waterways

Amsterdam's canals were once used to trade goods in the city, but now boats use these waterways to carry tourists.

Vaalserberg
322 m (1,056 ft)

