

NATO

Based in Brussels, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) is a military alliance between 29 countries from Europe and North America.

Belgium

Europe

Antwerp is the world's diamond center where diamonds are cut and traded.

Belgian chocolates

Belgium is the world's leading exporter of chocolates such as pralines and truffles.

0 20 km
0 20 miles
(approximate scale)

Tintin

Comic books by the Belgian cartoonist Hergé featuring the adventures of Tintin have sold more than 200 million copies since 1930.

Walking tall

In the past, locals had to walk on stilts due to floods, but now stilt walkers parade through cities just for fun.

Atomium

Standing 335 ft (102 m) tall, the Atomium is an iconic landmark and museum in Brussels. The nine spheres symbolize an iron crystal's atoms, magnified 165 billion times.

- 📏 11,786 sq miles (30,528 sq km)
- 👤 11.72 million
- ★ Brussels
- 🗣️ Dutch, French, German

While much of Belgium is flat, to the south it is rocky and forested. It is one of the world's most densely populated countries and is visited by millions of tourists for its canals and chocolate.