

Industries

Here are some of the main industries in the region.

Timber from trees is used as building material or for making furniture.

Oil is used to make fuels like petrol, and chemicals such as plastics.

Wheat is grown in the centre of Canada on prairies, which are huge, flat fields.

Metals such as zinc, aluminium, gold, and silver are mined in Canada.

Nunavut

a n a d a

Newfoundland and Labrador

Québec

Manitoba Ontario

Prince Edward Island
New Brunswick
Nova Scotia
Charlottetown
Halifax
Fredericton