

Central Eastern Europe

These countries were under communist rule until the 1990s. Today they are modern nations with thriving industries. Traditional farming continues in the rural areas.

Baltic Sea

Did you know?

The Polish town of Torun is well-known for its gingerbread.

Budapest is split by the Danube. Buda is on one bank, Pest on the other.

The snow-white Lipizzaner horse is bred in Slovenia.

