

Pop music

The Beatles were one of the most successful pop groups of all time. In the 1960s, millions of people bought their records. Performances on television also helped to boost their fame. The Beatles split up in 1970.

The Beatles playing live on television in New York, USA

Man on the Moon

In 1969, astronauts visited the Moon for the first time. People all around the world watched on television as the astronauts stepped onto the Moon's grey, dusty surface.

Buzz Aldrin

Buzz Aldrin was the second man on the Moon.

Space suit

The environment

Some people began to worry about the damage that humans are doing to the environment. They formed organizations such as Greenpeace and Friends of the Earth.

Nelson Mandela

There were many important political changes during the 20th century. Nelson Mandela fought against an unfair political system in South Africa. He became president of South Africa in 1994.

Advances

Advances made in the 20th century have made many people's lives easier.

Mobile telephones and the Internet make it easy to keep in touch.

Medical advances help us to fight diseases and recover from injuries.

Inventions such as the jet engine have made travel fast and cheap.

Sport became extremely popular, and many sports people became very famous.

Scientific discoveries, such as DNA, helped medicine and technology.

Technology

Many new types of technology were developed in the 20th century. Microchips were invented in the 1950s. They are used in computers, televisions, stereos, and many other machines.