

GODS AND GODDESSES

This list names the major Roman gods and goddesses, and also some of the many minor ones. The 12 major deities are indicated by an asterisk (*).

Aesculapius	Greek name—Zeus
God of healing	Mars *
Greek name—Asclepius	God of war
Apollo *	Greek name—Ares
God of prophecy and healing	Mercury *
Greek name—Apollo	God of messengers, travelers, and business
Bacchus	Greek name—Hermes
God of wine	Minerva *
Greek name—Dionysus	Goddess of wisdom
Ceres *	Greek name—Athena
Goddess of agriculture	Mithras
Greek name—Demeter	God of light
Cupid	Originally from Persia (Iran)
God of love	Neptune *
Greek name—Eros	God of the oceans and earthquakes
Diana *	Greek name—Poseidon
Goddess of the moon and hunting	Proserpine
Greek name—Artemis	Goddess of the Underworld
Dis (also called Pluto)	Greek name—Persephone
God of the Underworld	Roma
Greek name—Hades	Goddess of Rome and protectress of the Roman Empire
Faunus	Saturn
God of fertility	God of time
Greek name—Pan	Greek name—Cronus
Hercules	Uranus
God of bravery, male strength, and victory	God of the sky
Greek name—Herakles	Greek name—Ouranos
Janus	Venus *
God of doorways	Goddess of love
An entirely Roman god	Greek name—Aphrodite
Juno *	Vesta *
Goddess of women and marriage, queen of the gods, wife of Jupiter	Goddess of the home and hearth
Greek name—Hera	Greek name—Hestia
Jupiter *	Vulcan *
God of the sky, king of the gods, and protector of the Roman state	God of fire and blacksmiths
	Greek name—Hephaestus