

If you need to interrupt
someone or get their attention, say “excuse me”.

Excuse
me!

This is really important.

Bye!

See you later!

Don't forget to say “goodbye”
when you leave.

I am really, really
sorry
I hurt your feelings.

Apologising shows
that you know you
were wrong and
won't do it again.

Nervous giggles

Lots of children giggle when they are told off because they feel embarrassed. If this happens to you, try to stay calm and listen so that you can learn.
