

If you do have an accident, ask a grown-up to help you get clean and dry.

Everyone has little accidents from time to time, especially when you are first out of nappies. Try not to worry!

Try to always go to the toilet right before bedtime.

Night-time accidents

If you have an accident while you sleep, it's not your fault. Lots of children wet the bed so don't be embarrassed. Bed wetting goes away all on its own after a while.
