

Your body and brain need sleep to recover from the day. Children need around 10 to 12 hours of sleep every night.

Happy mind

Taking care of yourself doesn't just mean looking after your body. Your mind needs to be happy too! Tell people you trust when you don't feel happy so that they can help you.

Did you know?

Some illnesses affect the brain and can change how someone feels. These are called mental illnesses.

